GOVERNMENT EXPENSES.

WASHINGTON, May 15th.—A statement showing the results of the Acts of the second session of the Fifty-first Congress, passed by the House of Representatives, has been prepared by Thomas F. Cleaves and James S. Courts, clerks respectively of the Senate and House Committees on Appropriations.

The statement shows that the total amount appropriated by Congress was $280,400,000, while the permanent salaries and indefinite appropriations were estimated by Secretary Tracy at $188,900,000. The total estimated expenditures of the Government for 1889-90 are $469,300,000.

The estimated revenues for the same year are $434,500,000. The Acts provide for 350 new offices, the salaries of which aggregate $48,800, while the increase of salaries of old offices amounts to $1,023,880. Sixty-nine offices are abolished. The salaries of other offices are reduced $7,200.

The Postoffice Department has increased the allowance for compensation for clerks in the Postoffices from $9,075,000 to $9,550,000, and for railway Postoffice clerks from $5,240,700 to $5,600,000, with a $360,000 deficiency item.

SILVER MINERS. Arguments They Make Against the Importation of Mexican Lead.

WASHINGTON, May 15th.—A large delegation of silver miners appeared before Assistant Secretary of the Interior today and made an argument against the importation of Mexican lead. Under a ruling of the Treasury Department, which the value of precious metals is increasing, the value of silver is falling, and the value of lead is rising.

The miners argued that the importation of Mexican lead would be a serious injury to the American lead industry. They claimed that the value of silver is falling, and the value of lead is rising.

She makes a Great Hit in Opera at the French Capital.

PARIS, May 15th.—Masseton's new opera "Eclaircie" was produced at the Opera Comique this evening. Miss Sybil Sanderson, an American, took the leading role, and achieved great success. President Carnot, the composers Meyer, Dillibon and Godard, and numerous distinguished persons, including Millson, Melba and Duval, were among the audience. Miss Sanderson's voice is not of great volume, but it is of the utmost purity and sweetness. She astonished the audience with her skill in executing difficult passages, and critics predict a great future for her. President Carnot complimented Masseton at the close of the performance.

WILL WED A PRINCESS.

The American Consul at Tahiti Will Marry Mary and Fortune.

WASHINGTON, May 15th.—Jacob L. Doty is United States Consul at Tahiti, one of the Society Islands. He has fallen in love with the Princess Puala of Tahiti. A national betrothal has been arranged, and approaching nuptials are the absorbing topic in social circles in the islands. The Princess is a beautiful young woman, approaching thirty years of age, and a perfect blonde. She is the daughter of Lord and Lady Puala. Her mother is a native Tahitian Princess and her father an English nobleman of distinguished ancestry. She has had all the advantages of an education in France and England. She is the possessor of immense wealth in her own right, and receives a large annuity from the French Government. As may naturally be supposed the Princess has not lacked for suitors for her hand, all of whom, including the Duke of Dudley, she has refused. Lord Puala was himself anxious to have his daughter marry a son of the British Empire, but in gracefully yielded to the wishes of his lovely and only child to accept as son-in-law a sovereign American citizen.

Consul Doty is one year of age and has worked his own way to position and fame. As a boy he was Page in the United States Senate. He came from a good family. When Secretary Blaine was introduced to the guests he said: "It was not advised that I was to make a speech, but I expect to make one. In the presence of so many Democrats I cannot speak of party matters, but I will say that I am glad to be here, and that I am glad to be in the presence of a man who will administer this Government in a non-partisan way. Before Democracy was a party, and I will recognize that highest and most honorable career, which is to be a good citizen of the United States. I am glad to be in the presence of an age of enlightenment. The press, with its genius and literary ability, has done much good. A man has been more successful in making his name feel at home than General Angus. He is a great Frenchman and a great American. Who came to this country with the same zeal that made Lafayette's coming an honor to the land. I know I interpret your feelings when I say that the name and honor of General Angus." Several other speeches were made.

BALTIMORE, May 15th.—The members of President Harrison's Cabinet and many prominent men of the city gathered at the Adelphi assembled this afternoon at the country residence of General Angus.

Probably not one in a thousand realizes the fact that, to England, little Holland, whose King is at present at the head of the Dutch navy, is one of the most powerful nations in the world.

This is the best time of the whole year to purify your blood, because now you are more susceptible to benefit from medicine than at any other season.

Catarrhal Dangers.

To be freed from the dangers of catarrhal while lying down; to breathe freely, sleep soundly and undisturbed; to feel refreshed, clear brain, active and free from pain or care.
